

Trump's Victory

What does it mean for you?

WED, NOV 16

5:00 pm to 6:30 pm

MIT 34-101, EG&G Education Center
50 Vassar Street, Cambridge

You're invited to join the conversation with the following panelists:

Heather Hendershot, professor, MIT Comparative Media Studies, on extremist vs. mainstream conservatism.

Sandy Alexandre, associate professor, MIT Literature, on racism in America.

Lourdes Melgar, Mexico's former deputy secretary of energy for hydrocarbons, and a Robert E Wilhelm Fellow at MIT CIS, on a view from abroad.

Nadeem Mazen, educator, entrepreneur, and member of the Cambridge City Council, will discuss the future of complacency.

Kenneth Oye, professor with joint MIT appointments in the Department of Political Science and the Institute for Data Systems and Society, on the future of science.

MIT CENTER FOR INTERNATIONAL STUDIES

cis.mit.edu | starrforum@mit.edu | free and open to the public