

KHASHOGGI

Fellowships at MIT :: Apply Today

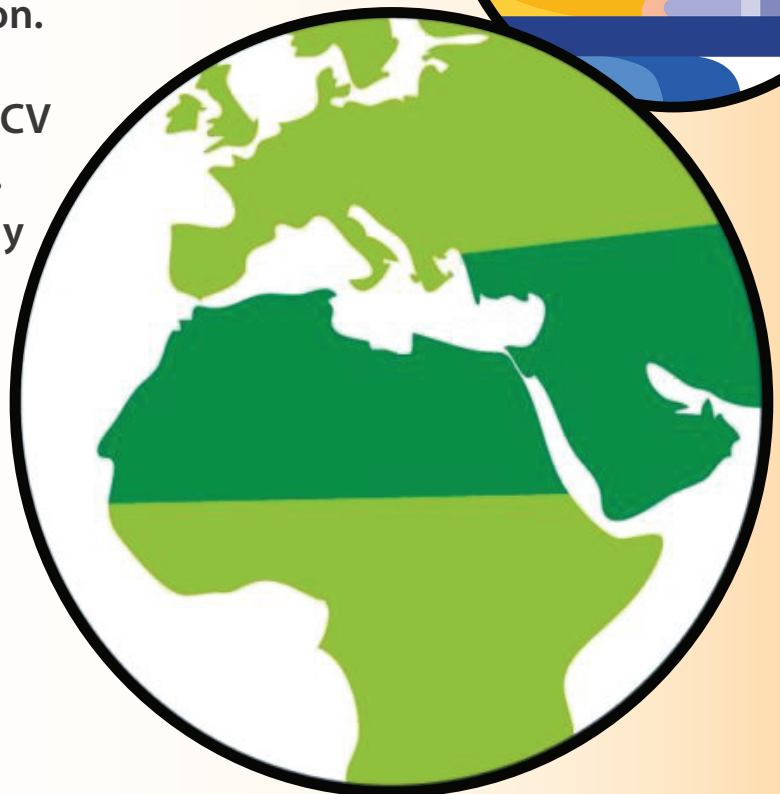

WHO? Undergraduates and graduates are invited to volunteer for a research opportunity to explore democracy in the Arab world’s Middle East and North Africa (MENA) region. Nine students will be selected as MIT Jamal Khashoggi Fellows.

WHAT? Khashoggi Fellows will develop and implement a survey to evaluate industrial countries, such as China, US, and Russia, and their impact on democracy within the MENA region.

WHEN? Submit a cover letter and CV to John Tirman (tirman@mit.edu). The project will begin immediately and culminate in fall of 2021.

QUESTIONS? Visit the web site at <http://bit.ly/MITKhashoggi> for more details.

MIT CENTER FOR INTERNATIONAL STUDIES
Program on Human Rights and Technology

